Aging Insights* Television Show becomes a reality

Trenton- The New Jersey Foundation for Aging (NJFA) is pleased to announce that Aging Insights, the Foundation's new cable show, will premier in October. Aging Insights will make information about aging issues and services, available to public access viewers. The first show will feature NJFA's Executive Director, Grace Egan as moderator and introduces the audience to NJFA. Program Manager, Melissa Chalker explains the Elder Index and our first guest, Lisa Pitz from the NJ Anti-Hunger Coalition talks about senior participation in nutrition programs.

NJFA is proud to bring you this program and will be sending out information soon on how to view the program. Aging Insights will continue to offer resources for boomers, caregivers and seniors while widening the viewership to other counties.
